Chapter 1 by Susanna Noe

Was it a knock that had awaken her? Beth jumped out of bed and walked over to the door. There was no one. She turned and saw that the tree outside her window had been tapping because of the thunder storm. She walked over and pulled her curtains shut. Beth laid back in bed still feeling a tightness in her shoulders. She hadn't been able to sleep throughout the night in three days. Her paranoia was getting to her. But was it really just paranoia?
